UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

-----X
Jose Reyes

Plaintiff,

-against-

Fifth Avenue Paving Inc. and Alan McKeever

Defendants.

ACTION
UNDER 29 U.S.C. § 216(b)

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Jose Reyes individually and on behalf of others similarly situated (collectively the “Plaintiffs”), by and through his attorneys, Stillman Legal PC., allege upon their knowledge and belief, and as against Fifth Avenue Paving Inc. (together, hereinafter “Fifth Avenue Paving Inc.” or “Defendant Corporation”) and Alan McKeever (each an “Individual Defendant”) collectively with Defendant Corporations, “Defendants”), allege as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1) Plaintiff was an employee of Defendants Fifth Avenue Paving Inc. and Alan McKeever Defendants own, operate or control a company located at 690 Montauk Highway Bayport, NY 11705 under the name “Fifth Avenue Paving Inc.”.

2) Upon information and belief, Individual Defendant Alan McKeever serve or served as owner, manager, principle, or agent of Defendants Fifth Avenue Paving Inc., and through the corporate entity operates or operated the company as a joint or unified enterprise.

3) Plaintiff was an employee of the Defendants. He was primarily employed as a laborer.

4) Plaintiff worked for Defendants in excess of 40 hours per week, without appropriate compensation for the hours over 40 per week that he worked. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff appropriately for any hours worked over 40 hours and paid him at straight time, which is against the appropriate Labor Laws.

5) Defendants' conduct extended beyond the Plaintiff to all other similarly situated employees. At all times relevant to this complaint, Defendants maintain a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff and other employees to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week without providing the minimum wage and overtime compensation required by federal and state law and regulations.

6) Plaintiff now brings this action on behalf of himself, for unpaid overtime wage orders pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. ("FLSA"), and for violations of the N. Y. Lab. Law §§ 190 et seq. and 650 et seq. (the "NYLL"), and overtime wage orders of the New York Commission of Labor codified at N.Y. COMP. CODES R. & REGS. tit. 12, § 142-2.4 (2006), including applicable liquidated damages, interest, attorneys' fees, and costs.

7) Plaintiff seeks certification of this action as a individual action on behalf of himself, individually pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

8) This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) (FLSA), 28

U.S.C. § 1337 (interstate commerce) and 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question).

Supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's state law claims is conferred by 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

9) Venue is proper in this District under 28 U.S.C. § 391(b) and (c) because all or a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this district.

10) Defendants maintain their company headquarters and offices within this district, and Defendants operate one company located in this district. Further, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants in this District.

PARTIES

Plaintiff

11) Plaintiff Jose Reyes ("Plaintiff Reyes") is an adult individual residing in Bayshore, New York. Plaintiff Reyes was employed by the Defendants from approximately on or about September 2005 until August 25, 2022.

Defendants

12) Defendants own, operate, or control a paving company located at 690 Montauk Highway Bayport, NY 11705 under the name of Fifth Avenue Paving Inc., at all times relevant to this complaint.

13) Upon information and belief, Fifth Avenue Paving Inc., is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York. Upon information and belief, it maintains its principal place of business at 690 Montauk Highway Bayport, NY 11705.

14) Upon information and belief, Defendant Alan McKeever is an individual engaging (or who were engaged) in business with this district during the relevant time. Defendant is sued individually in his capacity as an owner, officer and/or agent of the Defendant Corporations.

Defendant Alan McKeever possess or possessed operational control over Defendant Corporations, an ownership interest in Defendant Corporations, or controlled significant functions of Defendant Corporations. Defendant Alan McKeever determined the wages and compensation of the employees of Defendants, including Plaintiff, and established the schedules of the employees, maintained employee records, and had the authority to hire and fire employees.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

Defendants Constitute Joint Employers

15) Defendants operate a paving company in Bayport, New York.

16) Defendants maintain as their principal place of business a centralized office, located at at 690 Montauk Highway Bayport, NY 11705. Individual Alan McKeever possesses or possessed operational control over Defendant Corporation, possess or possessed an ownership interest in Defendant Corporations, and control or controlled significant functions of Defendant Corporations.

17) Upon information and belief, Defendant Alan McKeever serve or served as Chairperson and/or as Chief Executive Officer of Defendant Corporation.

18) Defendants are associated and joint employers, act in the interest of each other with respect to employees, pay employees by the same method, and share control over the employees.

19) Defendants possess or possessed substantial control over the Plaintiff working conditions, and over the policies and practices with respect to the employment and compensation of the Plaintiff referred to herein.

20) Defendants jointly employed the Plaintiff, and are Plaintiff employers within the meaning of 29 U.S.C.201 et seq. and the New York Labor Law.

21) In the alternative, the Defendants constitute a single employer of the Plaintiff.

22) At all relevant times, Defendants were the Plaintiff employers within the meaning of the FLSA and New York Labor Law. Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiff, control the terms and conditions of his employment and determine the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for Plaintiff services.

23) In each year from 2016 to the present, the Defendants, both separately and jointly, had gross annual volume of sales of not less than $500,000 (exclusive of excise taxes at the retail level that are separately stated).

24) In addition, upon information and belief, the Defendants and/or their enterprise were directly engaged in interstate commerce.

Plaintiff Jose Reyes

25) Plaintiff Reyes worked for Defendants from approximately September 2015 until August 25, 2022.

26) Plaintiff Reyes was required to work Monday to Saturday, sometimes having to work on Sundays. His starting time at Defendant's business was always 6:30 A.M until he finished work, as he didn't have a check out time. Plaintiff was paid $20 per hour the entire time he worked for Defendants. He was paid in a combination of check and cash.

27) Plaintiff Reyes regularly handled goods in interstate commerce and other items produced outside of the State of New York like cement.

28) Plaintiff Reyes work duties required neither discretion nor independent judgment.

29) Plaintiff Reyes worked in excess of 40 hours per week without appropriate overtime compensation from the beginning and until the end of his employment with Defendants.

30) No notification, either in the form of posted notices, or other means, were ever given to Plaintiff Reyes regarding overtime and wages as required under the FLSA and NYLL.

31) Defendants did not provide Plaintiff Reyes with each payment of wages accurate statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

32) Defendants never provided Plaintiff with a written notice, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiff Reyes primary language), of his rate of pay, employer's regular payday, and such other information as required by NYLL §195(1).

Defendants' General Employment Practices

33) At all times, relevant to this complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff and all similarly situated employees to work in excess of 40 hours per week without paying him appropriate overtime compensation, as required by federal and state laws. Defendants' pay practices resulted in Plaintiff not receiving payments for all their hours worked, resulting in Plaintiff effective rate of pay falling below the required overtime wage rate.

34) Plaintiff has been victim of Defendants' common policy and practices violating his rights under the FLSA and New York Labor Law by not paying him the wages he was owed for the hours he had worked.

- a. As part of their regular business practice, Defendants intentionally, willfully, and repeatedly harmed Plaintiff by engaging in a pattern, practice, and/or policy of violating the FLSA and the NYLL.

- b. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff with statutorily required wage and hour records or statements of his pay received, in part so as to hide Defendants' violations of the wage and hour laws, and to take advantage of Plaintiff relative lack of sophistication in wage and hour laws.
- c. Upon information and belief, this was done to disguise the actual number of hours Plaintiff worked, and to avoid paying Plaintiff properly for (i) his full hours worked, (ii) for overtime due.
- d. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff with any document or other statement accurately accounting for his actual hours worked and setting forth rate of overtime wage.

FLSA INDIVIDUAL ACTION CLAIMS

35) Plaintiff brings their FLSA overtime, and liquidated damages claims as an individual action pursuant to FLSA Section 16(b), 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), on behalf of himself.

36) At all relevant times, Plaintiff, and other members of the FLSA were similarly situated in and they had substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, and have been subject to Defendants' common practices, policies, programs, procedures, protocols and plans including willfully failing and refusing to pay them the required overtime and willfully failing to keep records required by the FLSA.

37) The claims of Plaintiff stated herein are similar to those of other similarly situated employees.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of the Overtime Provisions of the FLSA)

38) Plaintiff repeats and realleges all paragraphs above as though fully set forth herein.

39) Defendants, in violation of the FLSA, failed to pay Plaintiff overtime compensation at rates of one and one-half times the regular rate of pay for each hour worked in excess of forty hours in a workweek, in violation of 29 U.S.C. § 207 (a)(1).

40) Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiff overtime compensation was willful within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. § 255(a).

41) Plaintiff (and the FLSA class members) were damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.
